UTOPIA WITH TODD RUNDGREN IN LOWELL, APRIL 30

LOWELL, MA. - UTOPIA with Todd Rundgren, Roger Powell, Kasim Sulton, and John Wilcox will perform at Lowell Memorial Auditorium, Wednesday, April 30 at 8:00 p.m. in a concert produced by the University of Lowell Student Activities Commission.

UTOPIA, together since 1974, has established a reputation for technological exploration, and the band has pursued this technical, musical, and human excellence in recording, evidenced by their third album, "Adventures In Utopia," on Bearsville Records. This LP is partly based on a future television show they intend to produce.

Todd Rundgren is a rock veteran who broke into recording in 1968. A proven craftsman of pop singles with hits such as "Hello It's Me," he has also produced albums by Meat Loaf, Patti Smith, Hall and Oates, Grand Funk Railroad, and the Butterfield Blues Band among others.

After three albums with his first group, Nazz, Rundgren released four solo albums and has issued another three since the formation of UTOPIA, including "Hermit of Mink Hollow," on which he sings and plays every part.

Tickets are $7.00 for U. Lowell students, $8.00 for general admission, and $9.00 for any tickets purchased on the show date.

Tickets are available at the U. Lowell north campus Student Information Center, Garnick's, Tewksbury Music Center, Record Town in Billerica, Private Stack Ticket Agency in Lowell, Lytle/Valenti Agency in Chelmsford, and Elsie's in Harvard Square, Cambridge. For more information call the U. Lowell Student Information Center at 452-5000, extension 2345.
